Accept Our Thanks!

We thank the generous public for their liberal patronage during the past year, which has by far been the most prosperous of our existence, our growth and increase having run beyond our vainest expectations and hopes. Now, with hearts full of charity towards all mankind, we propose making everybody feel good, to which end we have put prices on all our winter stock at and below cost. Our low prices will be a surprise to many, at the same time will make all happy in this the New Year of 1890.

On all our Ladies and Misses long and short Wraps we give you a discount of 25 per cent. Cloaks that we sold for $10.00 go for $7.50; $7.50 Cloaks go for $5.00; $5.00 Cloaks go for $3.50, and so on. We have a large line of the above goods, and they must go.

OVERCOATS!

We have a line of Mens and Boys Overcoats that go with the same 25 per cent. off.

BOOTS AND SHOES!

Boots worth $8.00 go for $6.00
Boots worth $5.00 go for $3.75
Boots worth $3.00 go for $2.25
Boys Boots from $7.00 to $12.50. All our Boots must go, if low prices will do it.

BED BLANKETS, BED COMFORTS, FLANNELS, Shawls, Flannel Underwear.

In fact, all our heavy winter stock. We simply ask you to come and price our goods—they speak for themselves.

Thanking you again for past favors, and wishing all friends and patrons a happy, prosperous New Year, we are, Respectfully,

J. E. FOGLE & CO

LOCAL CULLINGS AND COMMENT.

"In God we trust" everybody else cash. JOHN R. PIERCE & CO.

Go to C. N. Gunther's for fresh oysters, celery, &c.

Go to C. N. Gunther's for Colgate's taffy lozenges—12 cakes for 5 cents, one half price.

Rev. Greenhouse is conducting a series of meetings at the court house of religious this week.

Gen. Thomas H. Taylor is again made chief of police of the city of Louisville. He served in this capacity from 1881 to 1883, inclusive.

Marriage licenses since last January: Taylor Hayes to Mrs. Ella Crowder, W. T. Brooks to Naomi Overton, C. E. Cantwell to Lucy Morgan.

If you want your laundry done up in nice style, bring it to W. F. Schapmire. He is agent for the "boon" laundry—Crown Laundry, Louisville.

He met Monday and will likely complete their work by the last of this week.

Everybody knowing themselves indebted to will please come forward at once and settle same. Don't wait for another, and say it don't mean "me," but come forward at once. We are in need of one money and must have it. C. F. WATKINS & SONS.

Tommy, Rolland and Charlie Taylor, three darlings who were placed in jail some time since, under an indictment charged with having burned some hay stacks belonging to A. B. Steady, of near Rochester, were released, finding bond in the sum of $100 each.

The beautiful little poem from the pen of Miss Lizzie Walker, printed elsewhere, appeared last week in the Henderson Gleaser. The editor of that paper truly says of them: "There is a beauty attaching to the poems that is exceedingly agreeable to every lover of the richness of pure thought combined in graceful diction."

Mr. Louis Gunther has bought what is known as the Edin property and will move to same about the first of March.

Fordville will soon be blessed with her second railroad within the last year, and it has been from furnace established there in the near future. This together with her finer timber interest will likely place her on the list of towns with a steady and lasting boom.

People who are in Hartford on business for a few days or visit board by the month or year, can get same at the Majestic Hotel at reasonable rates and will receive nothing but first-class accommodations. "The best little hotel in Hartford," is the name its many patrons give it.

The court of claims for Ohio county met Monday, with the following justices of the peace present, viz: Allison Hayes, C. F. Muffit, Joseph McKinley, C. L. Field, H. D. Patton, R. T. Bender, A. H. Ross, W. I. Howe, J. P. Morton, W. N. Martin, A. S. Hall, W. A. Avery, Judge C. W. Magese and attorney W. H. Hayward.

A Mineral Find.
That Ohio county is one of the richest mineral counties anywhere in western Kentucky, needs only a little investigation to prove. Mr. James Madock left at our office last week a sample of the shale found here nine miles south of Hartford near the White Sulphur Springs, which are situated on the Beaver Dam and Rochester road. Apparently this ore contains both iron and lead. Near where this specimen was found, is a hill containing what is thought to be first-class lead ore. In fact all the way from Beaver Dam to the Springs traces of the ore can be seen. Ohio county is rich in ore, and it will not be long before these valuable beds of ore will be worked.

Notice.
The officers of the late railroad election in Bedford, Boone and Beaver Dam precincts can get pay for their services by calling on T. J. Smith, county clerk, as the railroad company has paid the whole amount of the expenses to him for distribution.

A Card.
HARTFORD, KY., Jan. 6, 1890.
EDITHS HERALD:—Owing to my business engagements, it will be impossible for me to comply with the wishes of many kind friends in Ohio county to become a candidate for County Clerk. I feel grateful to them for their partiality and appreciate their kindness as much as it is possible for any living man to do. Respectfully, R. K. Cox.

For Rent.
A new store-room, in the best business portion of town. Terms reasonable. C. C. BENNETT, Hartford, Ky.

Much in Prayer.
Sixty-over meetings that closed at the Schroeder school house last Sunday evening.

Small Deaths.
Pen Taylor, judge; W. M. Adlington, clerk; J. T. Eglehart, clerk; Jas. E. Madock, sheriff.

COOK SPRINGS.—Jake Shirum, T. C. Taylor, judges; Jas. Haysan, clerk; Jas. Cox, Sheriff.

Wald to App.
The next term of Hartford College will begin Monday, Jan. 20. Young men and gentlemen who contemplate attending school in the spring can get no better school to attend, for the money, in the State. Some may go farther and fare worse. The number of young ladies and gentlemen from a distance who are attending school here, and who have attended school herebefore, is the strongest evidence that the school is meritorious. Particularly should the boys and girls of our own county, who are directly interested in the welfare of home interests, attend Hartford College, while the boy or girl from other counties who wish to attend a thoroughly first-class school at a nominal cost, need look for no other place, but come to Hartford. Next term begins Monday, Jan. 20.

A Grand Ball.
Will be given at the Howard Hotel in Fordville, Ky., on Thursday night, January 9, 1890. The Breckinridge String Band will furnish music for the occasion. A grand time is expected.

Attention, Young Men!
Young men who will attend College for the next term can get board at that popular little hotel—the Matthews Home—as cheap as any hotel in town. You will be provided with everything that makes life pleasant. Next door to Bank of Hartford.

To the Democratic Candidates.
You are hereby notified that the County Committee have ordered that each Democratic candidate pay to the Secretary of the Committee, the sum of $5.00 or before the first day of February, 1890, in order to defray the necessary expenses of the primary election. The names of those candidates who fail to make the above payment will not be put upon the poll books.

JOHN J. McHENRY, Sec. Co. Com.

A New Year's Wish.
PALO PINTO, TEX., Jan. 2, '90.
EDITHS HERALD:—Enclosed you will find $25.00 three dollars and a half for the HERALD, which will pay you from August 28, '98, and pay in advance for another year. I cannot do without the HERALD. I look for it every week as I look for a letter from home, and when I miss it, which I have several times in the last year, I feel that I have missed seeing an old friend. It brings me news from old schoolmates, friends and relatives, that I would not get only through the columns of your valuable paper. Several who have read your paper say it is one of the best county papers ever published. I hope it will continue to prosper in the New Year wish of your Kentucky friends.

MR. NANNIE P. MADOCK.

PERSONAL.
D. A. Miller, "Cromwell," was in town Monday.

Miss Virginia Smith and brother, Marion, have returned to Cincinnati.

Mr. C. R. Crowe, Glasgow, is visiting his parents near Boone. Some will visit relatives at Henderson next week.

W. L. Conner, of near Hartford and Alta Vista, of Louisville, returned Friday from a visit to relatives at Sulphur Springs.

Miss Thompson and Southern have returned after a visit to relatives at Henderson, and extended visit to the Misses Lee of near Hartford.

Miss Maggie Duncan, of Middlesboro, after an absence of several months, returned to Princeton last week to complete her course of studies during the spring term of the school at that place.

Miss Ella Duncan, after a brief visit to her relatives at Middlesboro, returned to Louisville last week to complete her course in the Bryant and Stratton Business College. She will likely be absent till July.

The Sick.
Albert Miller, who has been quite sick for several days, is about well again.

Mr. John P. Coleman is quite sick. Mr. T. J. Smith is able to be out.

Stockholders Meeting.
There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Hartford in the office of the Bank, on Monday, January 13, 1890, at 10 o'clock P. M. All stockholders are requested to be present either in person or by proxy.

POINT PLEASANT.
The names are prevalent in this community.

Hon. Alvis B. Tichenor returned home on a visit from Frankfort last Tuesday.

Miss Anna Tichenor, who has been quite sick for two weeks, is improving.

Rev. Gentle, Landon and Cranford are conducting a series of meetings at the Methodist church here.

Dave Madock and his brother, Captain of Rockport, spent Christmas with their brother John at this place.

Rev. Alvis B. Tichenor went to Evansville Wednesday on business, returning Friday.

Edw. W. B. Bender returned from a business trip to Evansville Tuesday. I will close for this time by wishing the HERALD a happy and prosperous New Year.

GLENNVILLE, KY.
Jan. 6, 1890.—Weather damp and gloomy, but business good.

Last Sunday evening about 4 o'clock, the pleasant house of Mr. Bob Phillips took fire from some unknown cause and burned to the ground. The occupying family, Mr. Henry Newton, wife and two children left early in the day to return in the evening and find nearly all of their earthly possessions burned. Assistance came in time to save some of the meat which was stored away in a log house on the premises. The clothing in the household goods were saved, save the clothes the occupants wore. Mr. Newton is known to be a steady, hard working man, who deserves a home, is now left with the world staring him in the face. The people of this community extend their sympathy to the embarrassed family. May God speed them in their future home. There being no insurance on the property, it was quite a loss to Mr. Phillips.

Mr. Willis Towns formerly one of Hard-ry's young druggists, dissolves partnership with Mr. W. E. Lee of this place, and leaves to travel for his home in Beach Grove.

Miss Sallie Lee Cox of this place, is visiting her brother at Zion, Henderson county, this week; also Miss Ella Ayer is visiting friends and relatives in Greenville this week.

—More in the future. E. O.

SCIENCE HILL.
Our school which was conducted by J. D. Coleman, closed last Wednesday afternoon. Several patrons and visitors were present, and all seemed to be pleased with the work done during the four months session.

Misses John and Wm. Shultz, etc., having previously collected a car-load of fine hogs, drove them to Beaver Dam, Monday, from which place they will ship to Louisville immediately.

Some of the names of the stockholders of the Bank of Hartford in the office of the Bank, on Monday, January 13, 1890, at 10 o'clock P. M. All stockholders are requested to be present either in person or by proxy.

ROCKPORT, KY.
The work on the tunnel near here is progressing slowly. Some of the boys get their eyes opened a little occasionally, but none of them have got much yet except the overcoat. Mr. Perkins had his head cut with falling stone, though not dangerously.

New Year came in quietly here, could hardly realize it was here except by the bright faces of the little girls etching on "New Year's gift," and they would do it to modestly that we could not resist them.

Misses Joe Smith and Dan Gibbs took in Evansville during the holidays, under the name of J. J. Smith, or somewhere else while he was gone?

Miss Sue Wilson, Boone, visited here last week.

Miss Sue Hunter is visiting at Boone this week.

Miss Jennie Holston, Central City, visited her sister here during the holidays.

Mr. D. B. London and wife, visited here last week.

Miss Laura London has returned from Hartford, where she was visiting relatives and friends.

The Literary Society met last night for the first time for several weeks. Our account of the plays for Christmas, they discussed till 11 p.m.

DREXEL.

Who was your Great Grandfather? The Detroit Journal desires to receive by postal card, the surnames of the male and female descendants of Revolutionary officers and soldiers of 1776, and when possible, the name and state of the ancestor. Write if W. H. Beatty, proprietor of the Detroit Journal, is contemplating a raid upon the national treasury?

ANDERSON'S BAZAAR

Is still in the lead, and is keeping up its reputation by selling first quality of Goods at shoddy prices.

Have you, during the two years just passed, bought a pair of Boots or Shoes at the Bazaar with paper or shoddy insoles? We say "No," because we don't handle that grade of goods, but our cheapest grades have solid leather insoles. Remember this, and buy of us, for to buy a shoe with good uppers and shoddy insoles is like throwing money away.

Our pure wool Jeans at 35c per yard is as good as any 45c Jeans sold in this county.

Our Cast Iron Jeans at 20c per yard wears as well as any 45c Jeans.

Our Dress Goods are the cheapest we ever had.

Our Shawls and Blankets can't be beaten for the prices we offer them at.

Our Clothing and Overcoats are bargains that can't be picked up every day.

Remember this and when needing anything in our line, call at the Bazaar and save money.

Respectfully, S. W. ANDERSON, Proprietor.

WE SEND

New Year's Greetings!

TO OUR FRIENDS BOTH FAR AND NEAR!

Our HOLIDAY TRADE was exceedingly gratifying to ourselves, and we flatter ourselves, to our PATRONS. With the New Year we propose to extend our acquaintance and enlarge our field of usefulness. As heretofore, we promise you HONESTY and fair dealing.

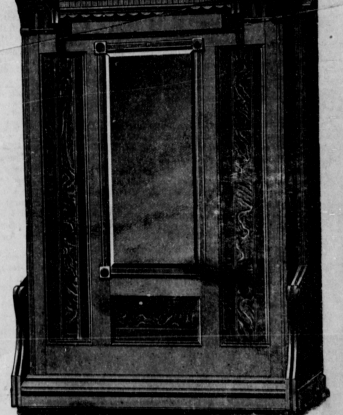

With our experience, CAPITAL, MUSCLE and BRAINS, we believe, we know, that we can be of service to the people of this GREEN RIVER country, and all we ask is that you

COME TO SEE US!

We call attention to the fact that we are now making Special Bargains of our stock of Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Cloaks, &c. We can and will save you money on them. Drop in and examine our BARGAIN COUNTER. Respectfully,
